VIDEO CONFERENCING SYSTEMS

Before your presentation...

- Login the alfaview application a few days before your presentation and consult the NANOTECHNOLOGY helpdesk in case you face any difficulties.
- Find the program of the upcoming session at the entrance of each conference.
- Click on the join button to enter the Group (hall) that you wish to attend.
- Login to the Group of the conference (NN, ISFOE, I3D, ISSON) that you have a talk 30 min before to avoid any possible delays.
- After the end of the presentation open the group chat to find the questions of the rest of the attendants!

Monday 6th July
WS3-COVID
11:30-12:00	KEYNOTE Prof. Thomas Webster, Northwestern University, USA Nanomedicine and COVID-19: Commercializing Improved Prevention, Diagnostic, and Therapeutic Approaches
12:00-12:30	INVITED Prof. Helmut Schmid, Fraunhofer-Institute for Chemical Technology (ICT), Germany Mathematical Modeling to Predict Corona Course in Germany and Description of Nanosilver Technology as an Effective Countermeasure
12:30-12:45	K. Tsougeni, Nanoplasm P.C., Technology Park of NCSR Demokritos A lab-on-a-chip for rapid, colorimetric detection of SARS-CoV-2 Virus RNA in 30 min post extraction
12:45-13:00	Heba Nabil Abdelaziz, Arab Academy for science, Technology & Maritime Transport, Egypt Nano-architecture role in Avoiding viruses impacts in human-built environment

Instructions on the right side of the interface state: "Click the icon above then Group A to join the session that you like" and "Please make sure that your mic is off while entering the session". A sidebar on the right shows a list of groups (Group A through Group E) with a "Join" button next to Group A. The bottom left corner shows a user icon with "1" and a microphone icon.

You can pass your time between the sessions that you wish to attend at the poster session or the free bar area to meet and discuss with the rest of the participants.
